

Sheboygan Press (Sheboygan, Wisconsin)

1910 > December > 8 > p1

PIONEER CALLED TO HIS REWARD

DEATH OF EVERT HARTMAN

Took Place at Home of Daughter in Town of Wilson--Funeral Wednesday.

Evert Hartman who came to the town of Wilson 'n 1844 and is numbered among the earliest if not the first of the settlers in that town, passed away this week at the home of his daughter Mrs. P. Dirkse, a half mile north of Oostburg.

The funeral was held Wednesday from the church, the Reverends Tuck and Bekkerink officiating.

Evert and D. Hartman with their father D. Hartman, took up land in the town of Wilson in 1844, coming to this country and Sheboygan county from Holland. The Hartman farm is located on the Sauk Trail road and is known to the greater majority of the residents of the county.

Mr. Hartman who was 86 years, six months and ten days of age was taken ill last Thursday and died on Sunday. He lived to a ripe old age and was a man that had enjoyed good health during the greater portion of his life time.

He is survived by six children, Mrs. H. Hyink, town of Holland; Mrs. P. Dirkse, town of Wilson, Mrs. H. J. Hultbregtse, Iowa, Mrs. George Jensema, Sheboygan and D. Hartman of Oostburg and Henry Hartman, two miles north of Oostburg.